The Weight Throw Event.

Both female and male exponents of this dynamic event have continued to light up the scoreboards. Last weekend, Brittany Riley (Jnr) launched the weight 24.57M. With conference and NCAA Championship competitions upcoming it will be interesting to see how the indoor campaign ends. In addition, AG Kruger threw 24.78M a personal best and is inching closer to the WR. Elite contenders such as Erin Gilreath, Jenny Dahlgren, Amber Campbell, Kibwe Johnson and others add their talent and abilities and it's plain to see how loaded this event has become!

- We will have coverage of the Tyson Invitational throws Friday 9th and Saturday 10th. You can check out the events schedule at http://hogwired.com.
- Fans of Olympic throws should check out the updated page of Coach McDonagh, it is loaded with live feed coverage, http://macthrowvideo.com/featured_amcdonagh.htm
- If you had recorded the Millrose shot please send it in for posting, I had mistaken the broadcast time.
- Jennifer Galvin will be recording the heavily contended men's weight throw next weekend at the University of Findlay. Look for more fireworks.
